NUCLEAR AGE PEACE FOUNDATION

Working for a World Free of Nuclear Weapons • Inspiring New Peace Leaders

“The Frank K. Kelly Lecture on Humanity’s Future honors the vision and compassion of Frank Kelly, a founder and senior vice president of the Foundation. Each year, a lecture is presented by a distinguished individual to explore humanity’s present circumstances and ways by which we can shape a more promising future for our planet and its inhabitants.”

“In a world where an estimated 40,000 people die everyday from hunger or preventable diseases, and where the United States alone spends $2.5 billion a day – about $28,000 a second – on military programs, peace education is a rational alternative to the chaos. If we are going to give peace a chance, let’s be practical and go further: give it a place in the curriculum.”

– Colman McCarthy.
