
“In the seven-decade history of the United Nations, never has a head of a member state threatened the total annihilation of another member state. If Charlottesville was a moment when neo-Nazis took off their hoods, then Trump’s U.N. speech exposed the U.S. Empire’s unabashed drive to aggressively dominate those countries it opposes.”

Frank K. Kelly

The Frank K. Kelly Lecture on Humanity's Future was established by the Nuclear Age Peace Foundation in 2002.

The lecture series honors the vision and compassion of Frank K. Kelly, who was a founder and senior vice president of NAPF. Each year, a lecture is presented by a distinguished individual to explore humanity's present circumstances and ways by which we can shape a more promising and peaceful future for our planet and its inhabitants.
